Expansion For Learning

Progress is the activity of today and the assurance of tomorrow.-
Emerson

May the youth of this community for generations to come gather in this place to receive instruction in knowledge and training in virtue. -Scott

To this end, may the blessings of God be upon child and parent, upon principal and superintendent and upon everyone whose influence will in any degree affect the work of education as it should be conducted within these walls. - Scott

To the Seniors of 1972:

Thirty years is a long time, and in that span many things can happen; however, no matter how you look at our world today, each of you as a product of it, will be the determiner of our world three decades from now.

Knowing the members of this class as I do, I believe in the year 2002 we will still be free, that each of you care enough about freedom, and trust enough in God to fight for the preservation of freedom and personal dignity.

Will I be wrong? It is up to you.
